SUPPOSED TRAIN ROBBERS CAUGHT.

Knute and Hans Knudsen Arrested and Brought to This City.

Information reached this city last Saturday evening of the capture of two men over near Mason City, in Custer county, Neb., who are supposed to be the identical parties who held up and robbed the Union Pacific train near Brady Island last Tuesday night. The capture was effected by ex-deputy sheriff Wm. Pursell, village marshal H. L. Crossley, and Dr. Carlson. The fellows had been seen by several Custer county citizens between Callaway and Broken Bow on Saturday. On reaching the Black Hills branch of the B. & M. R'y they stole a ride on a freight train Lu Huck went to Cheyenne Fri- from Ansley to Mason City, and were ignominiously "fired" by the Considerable numbers of cattle train crew. They only lingered and sheep are now being shipped but a brief time in Mason City and struck out walking eastward. Susthe above gentlemen started in pursuit with the result that they came up with their quarry some five miles east of Mason City.

At the time of their arrest the twain were bathing in a pond near the roadside. Upon being commanded to throw up their hands, the smaller one-who only had his feet disrobed-promptly complied with the order; but the larger one, who in the language of the sports is a "dead tough looking mug," seemed disposed not to surrender, and started for his clothing to secure his revolver. Fortunately for him he realized that discretion was the better part of valor, and "A boiler-maker's helper who had vielded ere the officers decided to Tom Daly, a well-known former which would indicate they had been used for masks.

The ferows exhibit a low cun by reason of their not telling the entire story in regard to their presence in this part of the country, as they claim their home to be in Dakota county, this state. They give their names as Knudsen, and are said to be Danes, and brothers. K. Knudsen is five feet seven inches in height, weighs 142 pounds, gives his age at twenty-nine years, and has his name tattooed on his left forearm. Hans Knudsen is six feet and one-fourth inch in height, states his age as twenty years, and weighs 168 pounds. Each have dark complexions and dark hair, closely cropped, and rather low foreheads, indicating riveted. a low intellect, yet not necessarily a lack of cunning.

The suspects were about eighteen miles ahead of the following gentlemen who were gradually warming up the trail and in a short time blood-hounds upon the track, although they had hitherto been of States marshal, W. H. Liddiard, ("Rattlesnake Pete"), chief deputy U. S. marshal, T. J. Brewer. deputy sheriff, of Rouse, Col., and U. P. R'v detectives Canada, Keith, Tobin and Vizzard. One persevering, perspiring individual was stationed at an upper window of the Pacific hotel armed with kodak, and anxiously awaiting an opportunity to "press the button." But the opportunity was not afforded him to secure a "snap C. S. Scharman, shot" as the cars were switched up H. F. Jeffrey to the Locust street crossing and the two fellows were escorted to the county jail by a large throng of curious citizens.

The Knudsen brothers were arraigned this morning before Judge Ray and their preliminary commenced. At the instance of their counsel, T. Fulton Gantt, a preliminary investigation was waived and bail was fixed at $5,000, in default of which they were remanded back to jail.
